Good surfers don't give up. The next wave might be epic. Just because the last one was a snapper (small wave) the next might be tubular (great). They jump into the surf, paddle out to the line up and hop the next wave. With practice, they learn to catch a better ride more often. That is what Unstoppable Life is all about.

In life, every difficulty carries with it a corresponding opportunity of equal size. For example, let's go back to the car accident from the last section. I mentioned how I got an attorney to settle the medical bills and dedicated myself to rehab, completing it in half the time, but I didn't tell you the best part of the story.
